OBJECTIVE

Hi, my name is Trung. I'm a front end developer with four years of experience and i'm living in Ho Chi Minh city, Vietnam.

I love crafting interesting websites that amazed my users as well as delivering them in high quality.

I love playing games, guitar, photograph, watching movie, traveling as well as studying new stuff, achieving abilities to create more amazing products always attracted to me.

After four years working with UI/UX, Canvas and Framework Vuejs, I always have goal high performance, understand what is a customer looking for, and give appropriate advice because that grow up me.

My goal is to improve my skill to make high quality websites and now I'm working with my dream and make it bigger.
